Dear Friend,

The Center for the Study of Political Graphics (CSPG) is excited to invite you to celebrate our 21st birthday! Please join us at the Track 16 Gallery at Bergamot Station in Santa Monica, Sunday, October 17, 2010 as we honor these outstanding individuals:

Ricardo Levins Morales, activist, artist, and co-founder of the Northland Poster Collective will receive the Art is a Hammer Award.
Art is not a mirror held up to reality, but a hammer with which to shape it. –Vladimir Mayakovsky

Robert Scheer and Narda Zacchino, award winning journalists and authors will receive the Historian of the Lions Award.
Until the lions have their historians, tales of hunting will always glorify the hunter.—African Proverb

Youth Justice Coalition, activist organization led by youth directly affected by the criminal justice system will receive the Culture of Liberation Award.
Culture contains the seed of opposition becoming the flower of liberation.—Amílcar Cabral

Comedian, writer and performer Sandra Tsing Loh will emcee. There will be an elegant reception, entertainment, great company, a dynamic poster presentation, and a unique auction of vintage posters and original artworks.

Send in your sponsorship, ticket and/or ad purchase by September 13, 2010 in order to be listed on the invitation. See the enclosed order form for complete details.

CSPG is an educational and research archive that collects, preserves, documents, and circulates political posters relating to historical and contemporary movements for social change. With more than 70,000 domestic and international graphics, CSPG has the largest collection of post-World War II political graphics in the country. Through traveling and online exhibitions, presentations, and publications, CSPG is reclaiming the power of art to educate and inspire people to action. Visit our website www.politicalgraphics.org to find digital exhibitions, online shopping, and more.
